

Background: The Borello case is a landmark decision in California labor law, specifically regarding the rights of public employees to organize and bargain collectively. The case established that public employees have the right to form a union and negotiate with their employer over wages, benefits, and working conditions. This decision was a significant victory for the labor movement in California and has influenced labor law nationwide.

st. 48 LR 16/08 in VIA ARTALLO 174 . (Catasto Fabbrica
Regione 616580 Andrea Beldante a DIANO ARENTIN

Settore. DIRIGENTE