

881.061045SR5Aene

On the basis of the above, the Commission has concluded that the information provided by the complainant is reliable and that the allegations are credible. The Commission has therefore found that the complainant has established a prima facie case of discrimination on the basis of race and ethnicity. The Commission has therefore ordered the respondent to take the following steps to remedy the discrimination: