

On the 2nd of February 2019, the following information was received from the relevant authorities: